Triplicate Receipt, black, control 111143, on block watermarked horizontal mesh wove, for $ 68.00 received April 12th 1875, from Cavillier & Co., for duties arising from Tobacco Entry No. 8352, signed by L.G. Fauteux

L. G. Fauteux is listed by Chris Ryan as Deputy Collector at Montreal from January 1st 1869 through June 30th 1870. It would seem from the above receipt date that L.G. Fauteux had retained his post as Deputy Collector for Montreal - at least through April 1875. Possibly he had pre-signed the forms, since the hand-writing is different.

Under the 3rd BABN Contract of October 22nd 1878, John McKay records the BABN delivery of 30,000 hand press recess printed copies of "Duplicate Receipts". To my knowledge none has been reported to date. The collection of Fritz Angst contains an example of an ABN Widow Queen "Duplicate Receipt" form.
